INSTRUCTIONS

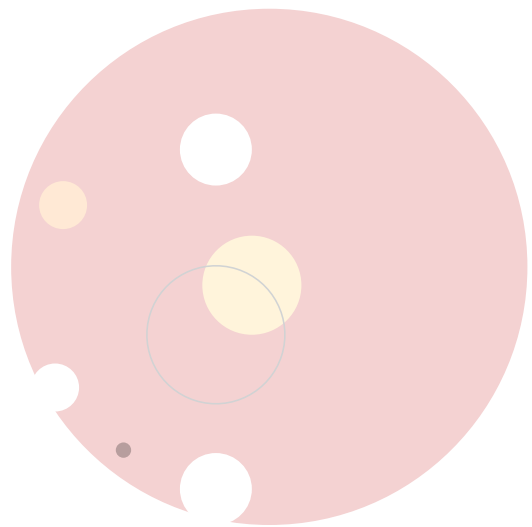

To assemble:

1. Print on heavyweight printer paper. Cut along the circle outline with scissors. Using a hole punch, make holes where marked on template (the small, solid gray circles).
2. Using paintbrush, apply a thin layer of craft glue over some of the circles on the invitation. Gently pour clear iridescent glitter over glued areas, then lift and shake invitation to remove excess. Assemble the invitations: With 1 medium brad, attach the medium-size white circle to the large yellow circle. Then, with 1 mini brad, attach the small pink circle to the white circle. Repeat for all invitations.
3. For each invitation, rotate the pink circle inward, so it covers the text on the white circle. Then rotate the white circle so that it hides the text on the yellow circle. Place invitations in envelopes. (Each invitation should look like a text-free stack of circles when pulled from the envelope.)
